

Tekmar Difference Setpoint Control 157 - Variable Speed

Out of stock

$350.66 USD

SKU: 157

The Difference Setpoint Control 157 is designed to use a variable speed pump to transfer heat from an intermittent heat source to a storage tank. It can be used in many different solar applications, including closed systems, drainback, or heat dump installations.